Dedication

We, the members of the 1955 graduation class gratefully and affectionately dedicate this book to one whose guidance, and adherence to those ideals and principles of good living and citizenship have made a profound impression on our lives and have helped us to charter our course for the future.

—MR. MILTON C. CALLOWAY

Acknowledgement

It would be impossible to list the names of all those who have contributed so graciously of their time, talent and means to make this our 1955 Huntingtonian a success. To you we are deeply indebted and we, the members of the Senior Class, wish to express our sincere appreciation.

The Principal's Message

My young friends the privilege of extending you greetings on your graduation day is unquestionably a highly satisfying experience. You have just reasons to be proud of your accomplishment. The pleasure we derive from the belief that we have shared in your development is a joy beyond your years to understand.

I should advise that you develop a dynamic and reasonable faith in your possibilities to achieve. Study your own talents and interests in order that you may determine for yourselves some worthy and attainable life objective. Where defeat is inevitable no challenge exists. Seek to avoid the despair and frustrations that invariably follow attempts to accomplish the impossible. Opportunities provided in the world of work are sufficiently varied as to provide each of you an excellent chance to locate and engage in some honorable and gainful endeavor.

What sort of world do we have today?

Our manufacturing and productive skills are unsurpassed; industry and invention have created a legion of new trades and professions, and science has made unprecedented progress in its war against diseases and the things that cause men to die—Alas, we are unable to resolve human tensions so as to live in harmony with the peoples of the earth. It is now your responsibility to understand and encourage all movements calculated to promote a more abundant peace.

It has been our purpose to aid you in the development of such knowledge, skills, and appreciations that would improve the quality of your adjustments. Hold fast to these truths, for they are good.

Our earnest prayers and fervent hopes are yours. Let HIM WHO alone can chart the perfect course take the helm of your life and the harbor will be assured.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Always one of the major undertakings of the senior class is that of publishing a yearbook. Our task this year was doubly difficult in trying to approximate the high standards set by previous classes. Despite this difficulty we, by a combination of hard work and determination, have edited a book which we hope will reflect credit to the staff and school and will be a pleasure to the readers.

ADVERTISING STAFF

To create and execute drawings which are attractive enough to be used in a yearbook is no easy task. The class of 1955 was unusually fortunate in having among its members many persons who possessed much creative ability. They along with other members of the Art Classes, directed by Miss Dandridge have worked diligently to construct interesting divider pages. To them we say thanks.

THE EDITORS

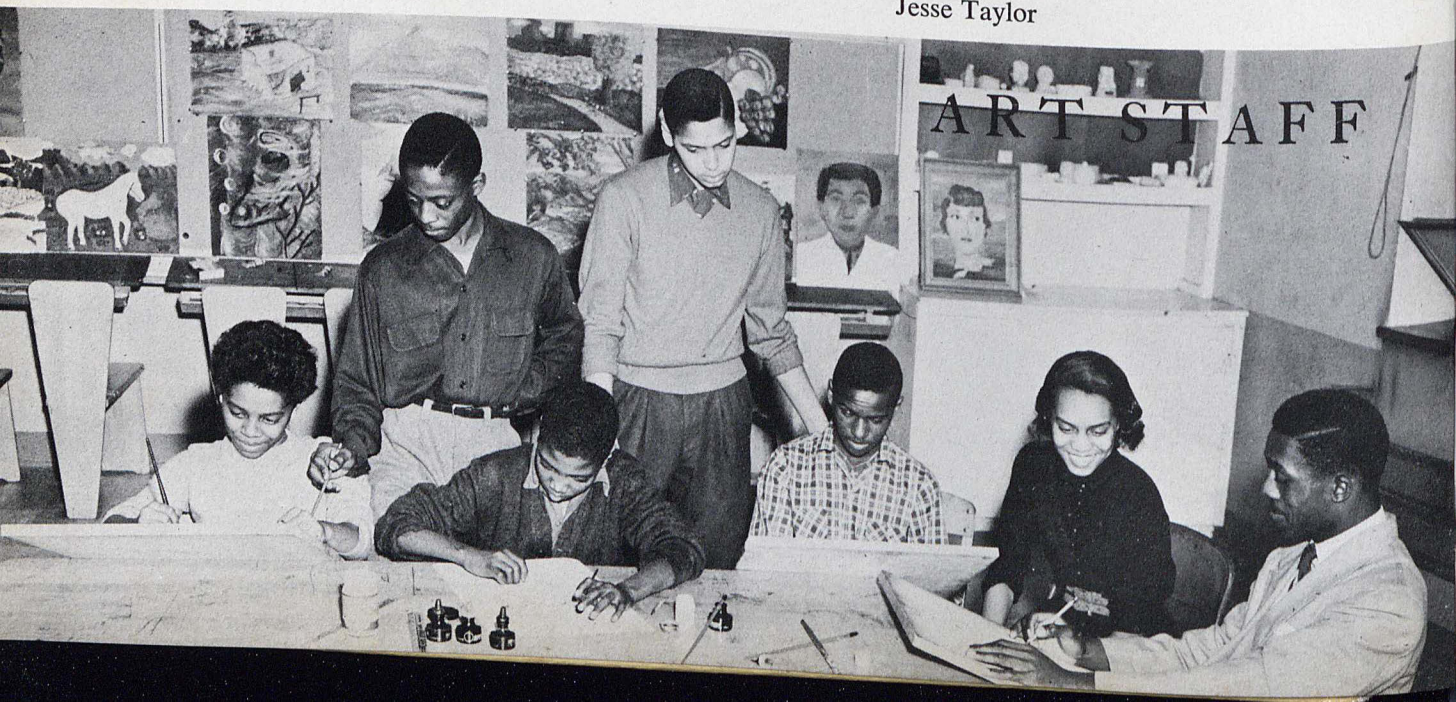

Always one of the major tasks confronting a yearbook staff is that of selecting an advertising staff who can build healthy public relationships and at the same time sell advertising space in the book. Much credit is due to this year's staff who because of their determination, their salesmanship ability and their tireless efforts surpassed any other Huntingtonian Advertising Staff and insured the financial success of the book.

THE CLASS HISTORY

Day: September

Weather: Warm and Sunny

Time: 8:45 A. M.

Place: Huntington High School

Characters: Narrator

300 frightened and excited Eighth Graders

ACT I — Scene I

The curtain slowly rises on a large group of students assembled in the Shipyard Community Center.

Mr. Scales: Welcome to our Huntington Family. I'm sure your stay here will be happy and prosperous. As you can see, we're in the process of adding more rooms and an auditorium to our school. To accommodate everyone, we will have double shifts. The eighth and ninth graders will come to school from 7:45 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. The other students will come from 12:00 to 3:45 p. m.

Eighth Grader: What a shame! Early morning classes and the upper classmen won't even notice me.

Mr. Scales: Everyone will pass to his last year's homeroom except eighth graders.

Narrator: The student body leaves. Mr. Rainey, the assistant principal, steps forward.

Mr. Rainey: These will be your homeroom teachers; Mr. E. N. Robinson, Miss Duncan, Mrs. Cobb, Miss Watkins, Miss Whittington, Mr. H. N. Johnson, Mrs. Dawkins, and Mrs. Seaborne.

Narrator: Mr. Rainey assigns each student to a homeroom. Thus the eighth graders begin life at Huntington. During the second semester, the school is completed, and the regular school day schedule is observed, much to the eighth grader's delight. The new auditorium is dedicated. The Eastern District Music Festival is held here, and many of us serve as guides.

Scene II

One Year Later

Student: Oh boy! We really belong now. Say let's join some clubs. But which ones shall we join?

Student: What about the choir? We're going to Philadelphia, this year. There's the band, and they will be getting new uniforms soon, also the Student Council, Math, Library, F.T.A., Motor, N.H.A., Hobby, and Science Clubs, and the Mirror Staff.

Narrator: Yes, we each joined some clubs, and the choir went to Philadelphia. The first May Ball was held, and we helped initiate the Cadet Teachers.

Scene III

Sophomore Year

Student: Well, two years down, three more to go. But it's fun. Just think, this year, we can be Waiters and Cigarette girls at the Prom.

Narrator: We had the pleasure of welcoming our new music instructor, Mr. Bouldin, and seeing the Business Efficiency and Industrial Arts Clubs organized and joining our wide circle of extra curricular activities.

Student: This year is almost over. I still can't believe I made it through Biology. But next year is Prom year! Eleventh Grade, here we come.

The curtain comes down on Act I.

ACT II

ACT II — Scene I

Eleventh grade. Dignified Juniors.

Student: Let's start early, and organize our class, and start prom activities.

Narrator: And so we did. Our class officers were: President, George Davis; Vice-President, Lowell Thompson; Secretary, Shirley Phillips; Assistant Secretary, Er-cell Green; Treasurer, Arthur Lepsey. Our prom theme was Hawaii-Tropical Paradise. The Diversified Occupation program was instituted and the first football dance was held. This year we made history by having a junior, Mattie Hill, as homecoming queen. Her Junior Attendant was Betty Hopson.

Student: What a year. I'll never forget the prom. Although it was raining, the dance was a success. De-witt Cooke was superb. All the students and faculty had a marvelous time. Even Mr. Scales was dancing a fancy waltz. This was an affair that will always remain vivid in our memories.

Student: Yes, it was a fine year. We grew in many ways and began to appreciate many things that had no value to us before. The year ended with great anticipation for a profitable senior year.

Scene II

Commencement Night

Narrator: Yes, here we are marching to that thrilling tune, "Pomp and Circumstance." Do you see tears in our eyes? Why, of course. Think of all our joys and sorrows through the years.

After the exercise, when the seniors are checking in their robes, the flood of memories began.

Student: I think this year has been our best yet. Our officers were: President, Earl White; Vice-President, Robert Bell; Secretary, Joyce Scott; Assistant Secretary, Ethelene Batts; Treasurer, James Haynes; Chaplain, Lee Mangrum. To record our successful year, so that we could not forget, was our efficient Annual staff.

Student: And these beautiful rings. I'll keep mine forever. Say, remember Class Day?

Student: Ha, Ha! Yes. We were really in style, in our Burmuda attire. And our banquet. Those lovely pink and white carnations. Such dancing.

Student: Do you remember Homecoming? Joyce Scott and Cleo Joyner were attendants to the Queen, and Kay Mangana was elected as the first Miss Viking. It was not all work and no fun. Most of us were in at least one extra-curricular activity. We participated in the Choir, Band, F.T.A., Business Efficiency Club, Science Club, Library Club, Social Studies Club, Dramatics Club, Hobby Club, and the English Club. Others were the Auto Mechanics Club and the G.A.A.

Student: Through these five years, we have certainly contributed to winning trophies and to bringing championship glories to each sport. On the Football team were William Kindred, Sylvester Rainey, Jack Avent, Phillip Smith, James Marshall, James Valentine, Walter Jordan, Charles Campbell, James Simmons, Joseph Buggs, Emmett Chapman, James Haynes, Grady Burgess, George Ruff, Eugene Blair, David Holmes, Bernard Chambers, Thomas Simpson and Gylinda Reed. In Basketball were William Kindred, James West, Herbert Strickland, Grady Burgess, James Simmons, George Davis, Robert Bell, and Gylinda Reed. In Baseball were Walter Jordan, James West, George Davis, James Marshall, William McNeill, Linwood Moore, and Earl White, and in Track were William Kindred, Phillip Smith, Joseph Buggs, Sylvester Rainey, James Marshall, Charles Campbell, James Simmons, Grady Burgess, James Haynes, George Ruff, Jack Avent, William Tucker, James Palmer, Leon Tynes, John Patterson, Ernest Anderson, and Thomas Simpson.

Conclusion

The laughing and talking continues, and the curtain slowly comes down.

Narrator: Yes, the flood of remembering will go on and on. Truly we have made five great years of history, but the greatest is yet to be made. We wish to thank our parents and teachers for these wonderful years, for without their help and guidance, we couldn't have come successfully through high school. Although we shall be taking our places in the various sections of the country, we will always remember our stay at Huntington High School.

HONOR STUDENTS

Ranking highest in the 1955 graduating class of one hundred and thirty-eight students were ten girls and one boy. These students who have maintained a high average throughout their four years at Huntington have not confined their efforts to studies alone; all of them have participated in the Band, Choir, Math Club, F. T. A. and other school organizations. They plan to continue their education in institutions of higher learning.

PROPHECY

Class of '13

THE CLASS PROPHECY

The time is ten o'clock in the morning of June 10, 1965 and the occasion is the reunion of the famed 1955 graduating class of Huntington High School. Before leaving school, the class decided to hold their reunion in a large city, which afforded many places of entertainment. However, since so many of the graduates have attained success and are constantly in the limelight, we on the committee felt that they would prefer quiet seclusion. The Florida Keys were suggested and the lucky choice was the island of Key Largo, which is the scene of our activities today.

Serving as hostesses today are Frances Williams and Harriette Tucker. Frances, who is head of the New York branch of the Horne-Williams School for Exceptional Children, and Harriette, who is doing U.S.O. work now, and at the present time is stationed in Japan, are seen lounging at the pier in their stylish creations by the noted fashion designer, Barbara Bowes. Harriette, along with some of her co-workers, including Alice Stephens, Ann Sneed and Marion Welsh, also stationed in Japan, was given a week's leave and flew here to be with us for the occasion. They are soon joined by Marvis Atkins and her fiancée, a French dress designer from Paris. She is flashing a huge diamond and they seem to be whispering sweet nothings to each other, but who can tell—it's all in French!

Lazily basking on the white sands of the beach are some of the nurses from the Mayo

Clinic in Rochester, Minn. Included in this group are Charlotte Conde and her husband, James Haynes, Elizabeth Jacobs; Gladys Winfield, and Cleo Joyner. After a while, they are joined by Shirley Scott and Beatrice Jones, who are looking "mighty snazzy" in their Bermuda shorts and collie jackets, created by the popular fashion pace-setter, Mr. Aaron Boone (known to the fashion world as the "Sheik").

A helicopter has just landed, piloted by that dare-devil, Don Lewis. First to alight is Zenobia Davis, air force nurse, currently stationed in Guam, and engaged to a handsome pilot. Among her companions we see the shapely physical education teachers, Yvonne Jeffries, Betty Hopson, Justine Brown, and Jean Everette. It is rumored that the girls are doing a wonderful job with the students at Huntington and have turned out quite a few basketball stars. From them we learn that James West, Joseph Buggs, and Jack Avent are now coaching at dear old Huntington and having much success.

Someone seems to have gotten a little air sick and is being carried off. We soon discover that it is none other than Dr. James Palmer, noted physician and surgeon. Right now it looks like he could use a bit of his own medicine!

Sauntering into the hotel, we are met by little Sharon Fraser, daughter of the model, Kay Mangana. Yvonne Carter, Jeanne Blevins, and Shirley Phillips, child psychologists, are hot on her heels. It seems that they are trying some of the latest techniques on the member's children who were unable to get baby sitters for the weekend and had to bring the kids along. Amid the screams we see a group of the mothers rushing to get their children. They were known to us in 1955 as Melissa Wiggins, Shirley Ruffin, Helen Cooper, Ethelene Batts, Audrey Blackwell, Alice McMillan, and Pauline Reavis. If they decide to sue, they will be sure to have a successful case if they secure the services of the law firm of Campbell, Whittaker, White and Holmes, a prominent firm, now flourishing in Los Angeles, California. Their last case was one of a divorce between those famous stars Lassie and Rin-tin-tin.

Speaking of techniques, get this — Shirley Armfield, now engaged to some chap named Madison from New York, is now a successful psychoanalyst there in the "big city." She has rented a suite of rooms right here in the El Swanko and set up practice! Shirley came here for a week to rest, but as you know, she never was one to let any grass grow under her feet!

In the south room of the El Swanko we find Dr. Carter Bradshaw and several of his private secretaries in a heated discussion over who gets to take dictation in his lap. Included in this group are Sarah Haskett, Addie Bates, Virginia Simmons, Lillian Poe, and Louise Parker. Ernestine Walston, his private nurse, comes in and settles the whole mess. As we enter, the girls are all looking for chairs!

Making a grand entrance on the stairway above, we find none other than Grace Harris, the fabulous movie star, and a few of her many admirers, including Walter Jordan, "Skinny" Thomas, William Kindred, Floyd Keller and Ernest Brown. They have all begged her hand in marriage, but tonight, she informed them that she was promised to another — Leon Tynes, a famous architect. Rumor has it that he gave her a fine Eldorado, to seal the bargain!

In the powder room, primping and catching up on the latest happenings are those teachers and girls about town, Nola Wimberly, Gladys Pegram, Mary Stewart, Luvenia Bryant, Mary Clark, Juanita Christian and Frances Wylie. They are speaking of Verdelle Guinyard, who will soon be quitting her job as a teacher to take on the full-time job of a housewife with an outstanding commercial artist, William Scott, once a member of our fabulous senior class. The girls all look tres chic in their new creations by the eminent fashion designer, Leonard Tucker.

Music comes floating out to us from the ballroom. There we find the songsters Freddie Everette and Annie Pringle, fresh from their show on Broadway. We had high hopes of securing the popular lyric-soprano, Miss Jacquelyn Hyman, of the Metropolitan to appear with them, but as she has the lead in the opera, "Tosca" she was unable to come. Singing in the cast with her are Clarence Smith and Jerome Lyons. We are proud to have had such a celebrated singer as Miss Hyman as a member of our class! The band leader looks familiar. Why it is David Garrett. Some of the boys in the band waving high to us are Nathaniel Trower, William McNeil, George Small, Walter Stevenson, Willie Branch, Burnice Curtis, Jesse Christopher, Bernard Chambers, and James Winnegan. Man what a racket — crazy, but cool!

At a glance we see that the ballroom has been beautifully decorated for the coming event by John Carter and William Holloman, interior decorators.

Here comes Lee Mangrum, rushing as usual, pencil behind ear and papers in hand. He invites us to view the beach house which he was engaged to decorate for the occasion. Some of his workers, James Valentine, William Tucker—the great bricklayers, Linwood Moore, Charles King, Daniel Lee, George Jones, Eugene Blair, Marcelle Chapell, and Leon Hayes call greetings to us as we peep inside.

At a call from our hostesses we turn our gaze to the pier, where we see an enormous yacht, streamlined and beautiful. On deck is her captain, Sylvester Rainey, tall, and suntanned and handsome. At his side is his loving wife, Joyce, who is now a noted stage and screen star. She recently won an oscar for her performance in the refilming of the "Thing" (in which she screamed all the way through).

Tossing about in the waves and trying to make shore in a tired-looking motor boat is the great novelist, Raymond Prince. He has just returned from a round-the-world tour to get information for his newest novel, "The Last Time I Saw Timbuctoo." He finally makes it with the help of his friends Charles Slade and Ernest Anderson. On shore, rushing to get autographs, we find Mary Randall, Annie Ridley, Mattie Hill, Loretta Palmer, and Rosie Crayton.

On the other side of the island, patiently hoping for some poor lost souls to be washed in, we spot Theodore Savage, a local undertaker and his faithful wife Arizona. It seems that business has slacked off a bit, down here in the healthy sunshine and all, and he is looking for extra work.

Lying on the chase-lounge on the patio of the El Swanko Hotel, in a pose that is making her husband Charlie's hair curl, we see Catherine Curtis, now a famous doctor in D. C. That Bikini bathing suit, which was designed by the noted creator, Jesse Jose Taylor, does wonders for her!

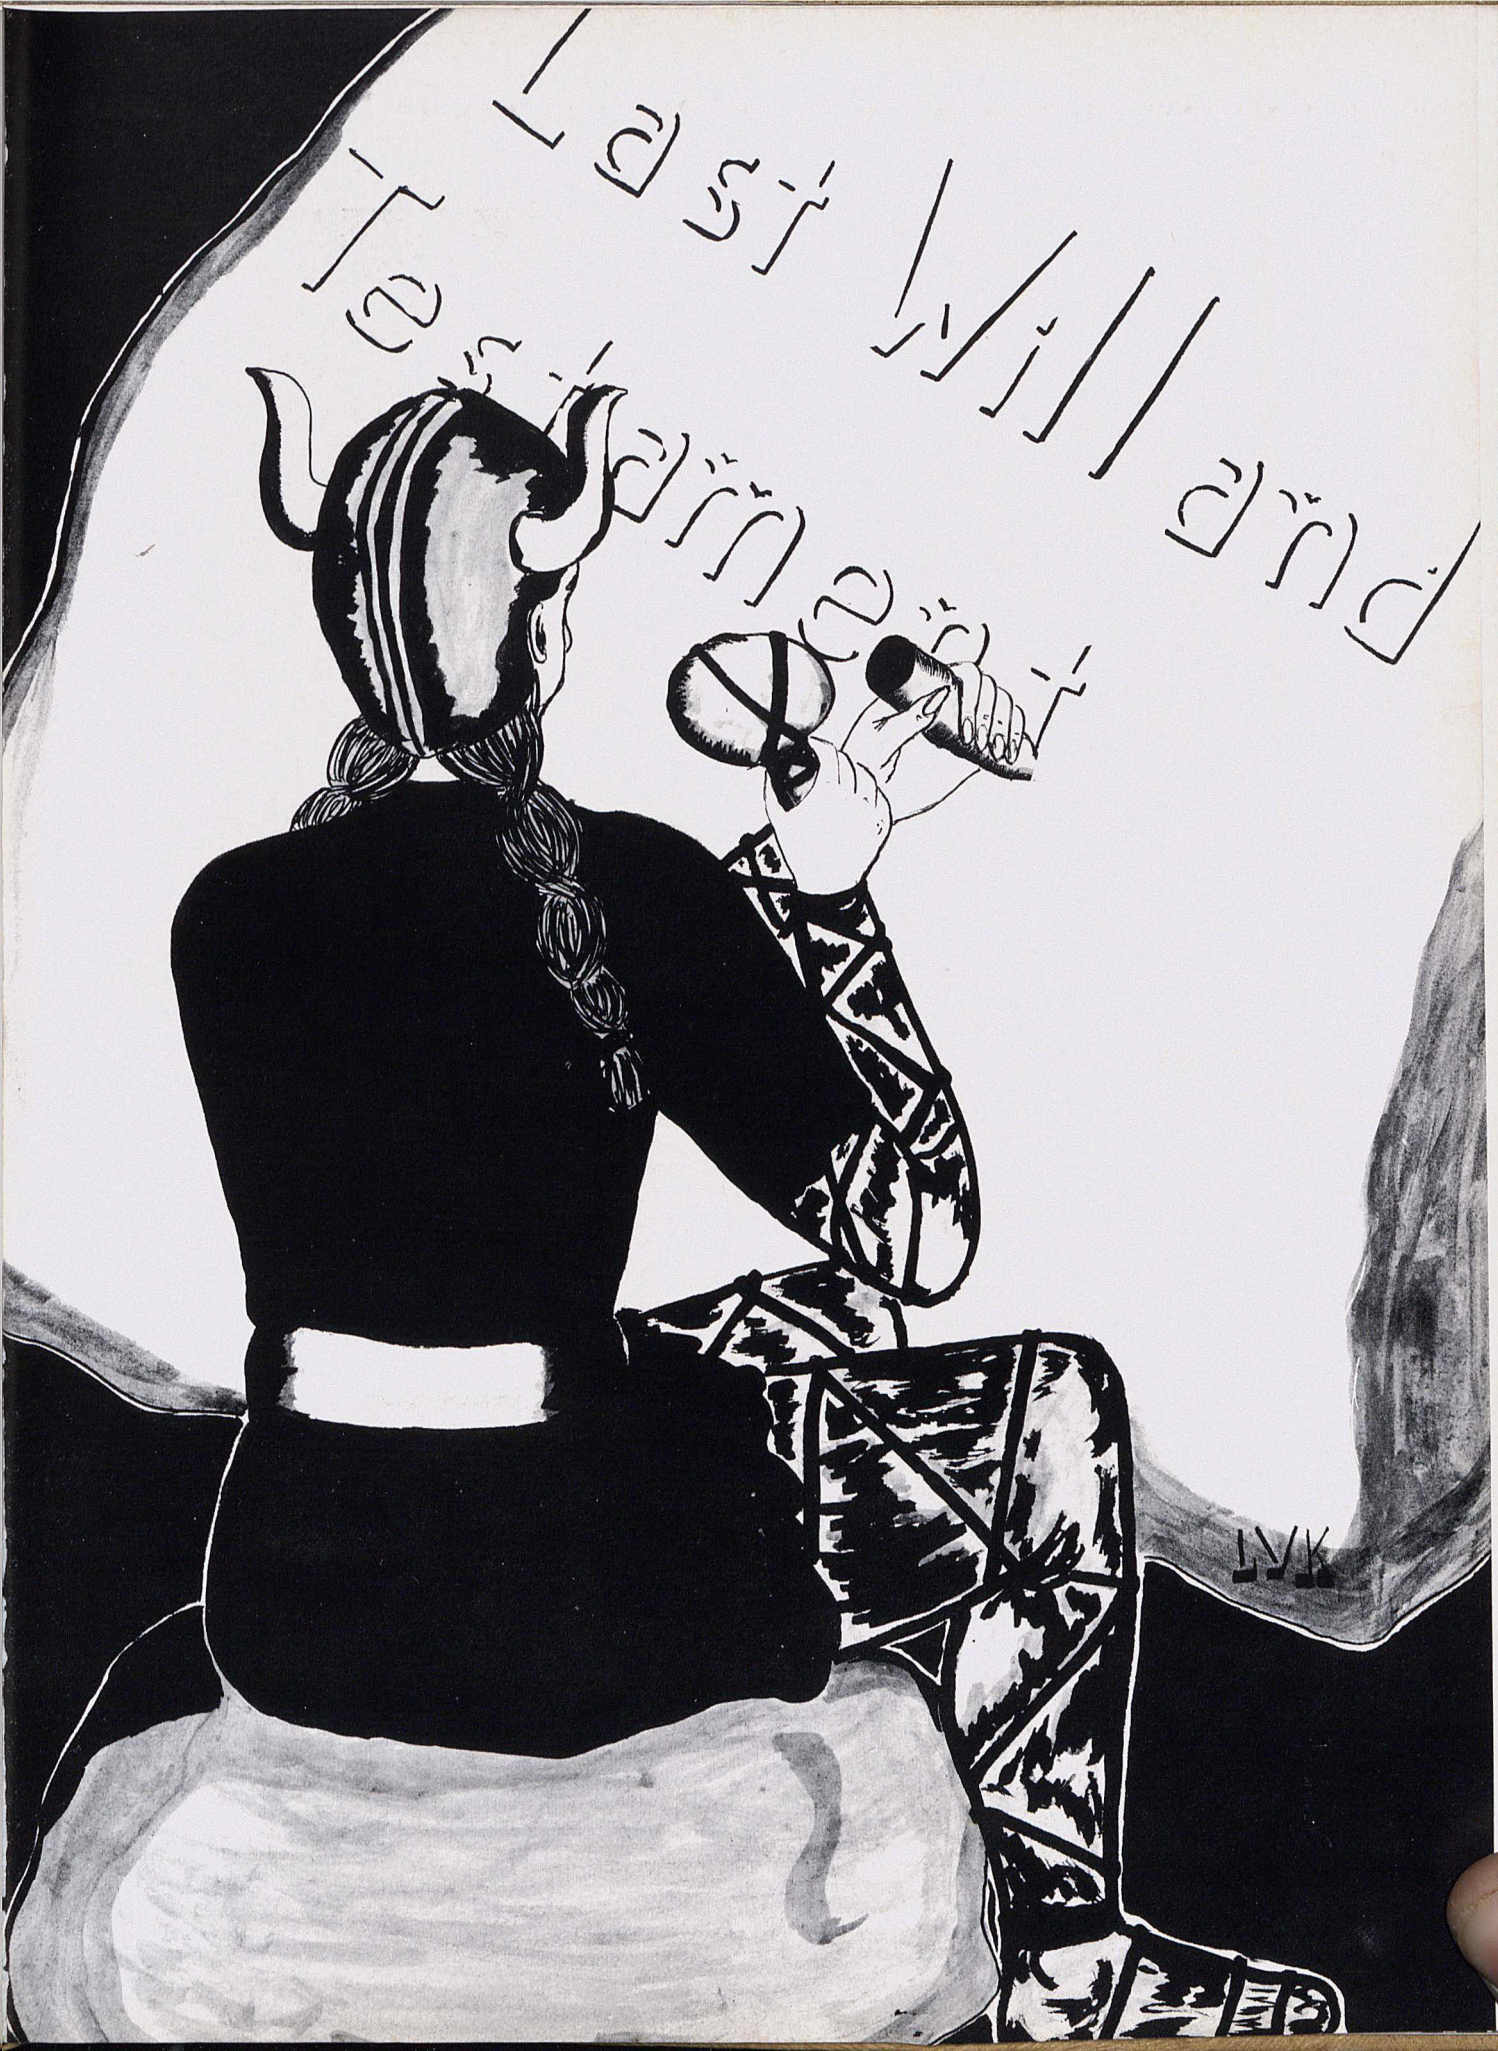

The messenger boy is bringing telegrams from some of the members expressing their regrets for not being able to make it. Among those who were unable to come are Herbert Strickland, Bessie Stanley, Betsy Murphy, and Clarence Johnson who are attending the fight tonight in Madison Square Garden. We are proud to say that one of our class members, Hilton "Sugar Ray" Parker, is fighting for the title of Welterweight champion tonight and the experts say that he is sure to win. Also attending the fight are Doctors Alpheus Rainey and Donald Simmons (who still make sure that nothing happens to our boy George Ruff), Doris Garrett, Cynthia Newby, and Ercelle Green.

Another shining speed boat is docking at the pier. Its captain is the celebrated minister of the National Presbyterian Church, the Reverend Dr. Eugene Butts, his charming wife, Peggy and their seven children. They have just returned from a much needed rest trip, in Hawaii, and are headed for home in Washington, D. C.

A loudblast of the ferry tells us that the rest of our class is here at last. Standing on deck eagerly awaiting the dock are Phillip Smith, James Simmons, Thomas Simpson, Herman Pittman, James Marshall, John Patterson, George Davis, William Conde, Francena Fichette, Robert Bell, Clara Anderson, Catherine Hartwell, Thomas Shields, Harry Crayton, and Leroy Jones. As we rush out to meet them, we bid you a fond farewell, with the hopes that we will see you all at the next reunion of the 1955 Graduating Class of Huntington High School. So-long!

P.S. Just in case you're wondering about the expense of the occasion — don't worry. The renowned statistician, Barbara Lane has the whole affair budgeted down to the last penny and you can be sure we'll get our money's worth

THE CLASS WILL

We, the members of the 1955 Senior Class of Huntington High School, being sound in mind and body, make this our last will and testament. With both sorrow and joy, we do hereby bequeath our personalities, inclinations, and intellectual curiosity to the lower classmen, who have yet to master the three R's.

To the babies of the Huntington family, the eighth graders, we will the ability to adjust themselves to high school life.

To the freshmen, our cool, calm, and dignified manners. "Graduation, not acceleration should be your goal."

To the members in the grades just between orientation and graduation, we will the ability to retain the knowledge that they have gained.

To the Juniors, we will the ability to recall what they have been taught and to retain the knowledge throughout the coming year.

A challenging group of students is willed to Mr. Turner.

Joyce Scott, Catherine Curtis, and Beatrice Jones, leave their dramatic ability to Hermine Bacote and William Newby.

Pauline Reavis and Cleo Joyner leave four years of model conduct to Susanne Bates.

Aaron Boone leaves his ability to chew gum in physics to any prospective physics student.

Myra Holloway and Marian Perry leave their fondness for the opposite sex to anyone who wants a good time.

Shirley Scott and Gladys Pegram will their attentive attitudes in class to Theresa Jones and Lottie Moore.

Loretta Palmer, William Scott, Phillip Smith, and Melissa Wiggins leave their ability to ask questions to some shy lower classmen.

The ability to qualify as a member of the Diversified Occupation Club is left by William Kindred, Theodore Savage, Leon Tynes, George Jones, Betty Hopson, Louise Parker, and Zenobia Davis.

To Norman Williams, Doris Joyner, and Carol Calloway, Shirley Armfield, Barbara Lane, and Charlotte Conde will their seats in second-year French class and this message, "Apprenez parler francais bien."

Kay Mangana has decided to leave her ability to charm young men to Gloria Bates.

After some thought, Yvonne Jeffries, Mattie Hill and Justine Brown decided to leave their slenderness to Pearl Harris.

To some lucky girls are left the majorette suits of Ann Sneed and Josephine Christian. "Step high girls and wear them as long as we did."

Jacquelyn Hyman has decided to take her lovely soprano voice with her, but she does leave her solo parts in the choir to some deserving soprano.

Ernestine Walston, Marvis Atkins and William Conde leave their seats in physics class to Carlton Rainey. We hope you can conquer physics.

Marion Welch, Harriette Tucker and Verdelle Guinyard leave to Marian Poe, Delores Ingram and Lynn Allen, the ability to enjoy basketball games and other school activities without promenading all over the place.

To Henry Mangrum, Breon Haskett and Henry Britt, Lee Mangrum leaves his clean absentee slate and alarm clock. School starts at 8:45 Monday morning and is in session every morning until Friday, Boys.

Jean Everette and Sarah Haskett will to Maurice Jones, their ability to play basketball.

Barbara Bowes and Jean Blevins leave their memories of the school days to Dorothy Byrd, and hope that she can get along one year without them.

Gladys Winfield, Annie Ridley, Annie Pringle and Mary Clark bequeath their seats in Mr. Turner's room to Joyce Ridley and Joseph Winfield sincerely hoping that they will find them more comfortable than they did.

Nola Wimberly leaves to her sister, Shirley, her high scholastic grades. Better stop dreaming about Andrew, sis, and concentrate on your books.

Sylvester Rainey, James Palmer, and Thomas Simpson leave their ability to run track to Richard Gillis and Lorenzo McNeal. Keep trying, boys, and you won't finish last.

To Walter Williams, James Haynes, Jack Avent, and George Ruff leave their brilliant football plays. Stop trying to jive the coaches and the chicks. Listen to the coaches and develop some skill.

The ability to play a real E-flat is left to John Neal and Joseph Ross by Ernest Anderson.

Elizabeth Jacobs, Robert Bell, and Clarence Johnson bequeath their kindness and courtesy to the upperclassmen.

Clarence Whittaker, Ernest Anderson, Charles King, Walter Stephenson, and David Garrette leave their places in the band to anyone their suits will fit.

George Davis, James West, James Simmons, and Herbert Strickland will their basketball skills to Caesar Williams, and Clinso Copeland so that next year's team will equal this one.

To Karen and Janet Leach are willed the ladylike ways of Shirley Phillips, Rosie Crayton, and Lillian Poe. Slow down, girls.

Leonard Tucker leaves his half of the piano stool to Gordon Starks. I really enjoyed working with you, Gordon.

Carter Bradshaw leaves only memories to Sandra Downing and Maxine Lawrence.

Yvonne Carter and Clara Anderson leave their friendly smiles to all pessimists.

Willie Branch, John Johnson, John Carter, William Keller, and William Holloman leave their books to anyone who wants them. They never found much use for them.

Betsy Murphy, Frances Wylie, and Earl Briggs think that their sisters and brothers are big enough to take care of themselves, so they won't appoint anyone for that task.

Linwood Moore, Mary Randall, Thomas Shields, Bernard Chambers and Eugene Blair feel that they have nothing to will since they have had such a wonderful time in high school.

Beatrice Jones, Grady Burgess, and Alice McMillan leave excess weight to all underweights.

Alice Stephens and Helen Cooper leave their lovely dispositions to all those who might find them of some use.

Naomi Bell thinks she'll need everything to go to housekeeping on, so we'll excuse her.

CARTER BRADSHAW	Vice-President
MYRTLE WILLIAMS	Secretary
MONTROSE ELAM	Treasurer
LEONARD TUCKER	Chaplain
MISS C. E. JACKSON, MR. W. C. BROWN.....	Sponsors

The purposes of the Business Efficiency Club are to acquaint students with various occupations in the field of business, to perform typewriting assignments for various departments of the school, and to sponsor activities that will broaden the knowledge of the members of the club and that will acquaint the entire school with the business department.

The club made a bulletin board display on the various business occupations, prepared monthly Business Efficiency Club News Bulletin, went on field trips to various businesses and business schools, constructed a float for the homecoming parade.

LIBRARY CLUB

PAULINE REAVIS	President
BARBARA LANE	Vice-President
SHIRLEY PHILLIPS	President
JACQUELINE HYMAN	Secretary
MARY CLARKE	Treasurer
MISS R. L. MEALY	Sponsor

The Library Club is organized to give interested pupils some pre-vocational training and experience. Pupils are taught such things as: processing new books, writing and distributing overdue notices, reading shelves, and making attractive and timely bulletin boards.

The club this year has assisted the librarian in carrying out library routines, preparing displays, and aided less experienced students in simple reference problems.

MRS. WILSON, MRS. GREEN, AND MISS CAMPBELL.....	Sponsors

The Social Studies Club aims are: to establish a social studies laboratory; to stimulate the members interest in social studies and to gather records, materials and relics for future reference for the Social Studies Department.

The club launched its activities for the year 1954-55 with a "Good Citizenship Campaign Week." During this week the students were reminded of those qualities which characterize ladies and gentlemen by daily announcements and an assembly program. The club constantly promotes the school's objectives by participating in and supporting the school program.

The yearly program of the Student Council is focused around the problem of helping the students of Huntington become aware of the part they can play in making our Huntington community what it should be.

A great portion of the time of the council has been spent this year in trying to make our meetings more effective and in trying to evaluate each phase of our entire program for the purpose of improving it.

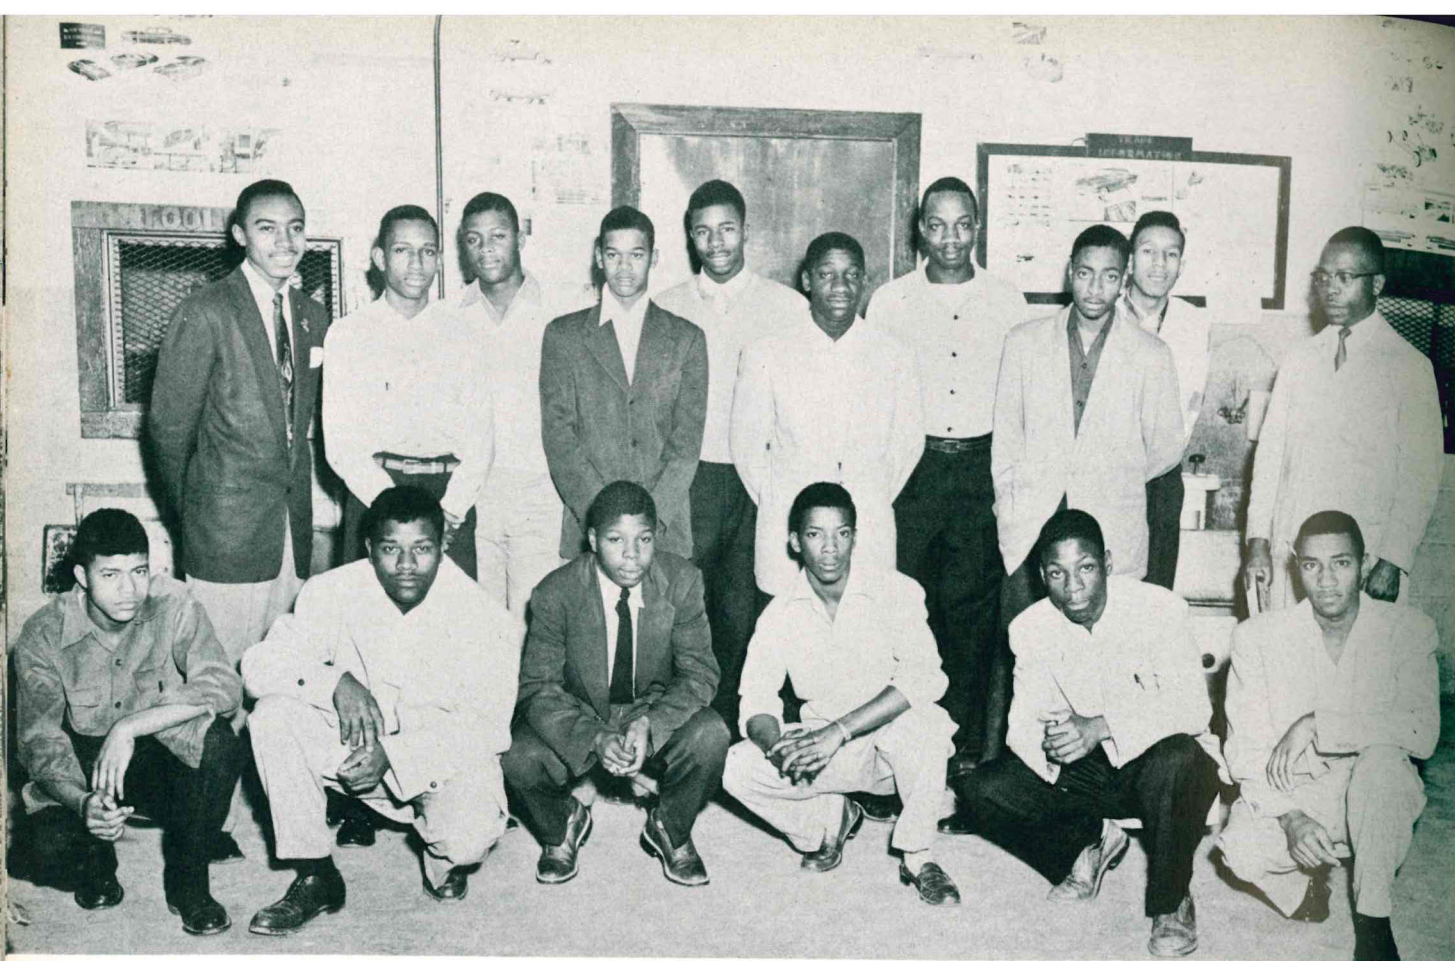

We have become a potent force in the Peninsula Student Council, the Student Participation Association and the National Association of Student Councils.

The Program of Diversified Occupations is a form of part-time education, which involves a cooperative arrangement between the business and industrial enterprises of the community and the high school. These businesses and industries furnish part-time employment and training to students during school hours. Through this employment the student learns the manipulative part of the job under actual working conditions. The school facilities are used to furnish the technical subject material related to the job being learned.

Members of the Chapter conducted an impressive Induction Service at Bruton Heights School, assisted the Student Council in the Orientation Day Program, entertained new members and gave a social.

THE PRESIDENTS CLUB

EARL WHITE	Chairman
CHARLES W. PLEASANTS	Co-Chairman
MARVIS ATKINS	Secretary
MISS M. W. SMITH	Sponsor

This club is made up of all the presidents of the clubs in the school. They have formed this organization for the purpose of coordinating the club programs in our school. It is hoped that closer cooperation in club projects will result.

There are problems that arise in our school that require the concerted effort of all of the clubs. Projects like a better school attendance campaign, a clean-up campaign, and a campaign to increase the student's respect for school property head the list of those to be launched by this group.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The purpose of the Dramatic Club is to develop an appreciation for dramatics as a fine art. The drama is the most stimulating form of literature because one learns by doing and one lives by being, and acting is very definite living. The club's objectives are to encourage self-confidence, to establish poise and self-expression, and to stimulate participation. Each year the club is represented at the District and State Drama Festivals. Plays are also presented for the enjoyment of the student body. This year's productions have been "Jane Eyre," a Marjorie Carleton dramatization in three acts, and "Heat Lightning," the play used to represent the club at the District and State Festivals this year.

THE INDUSTRIAL CLUB

The band is composed of one drum major, six majorettes, four color guards and seventy-eight instrumentalists. The general objective of the instrumental music program is to enhance through participation the culture and musical appreciation of the student. The program is divided into three major sections: the beginners class, the Junior Band, and the Senior Band.

The Senior and Junior Bands have participated in more than 75 activities of the school and community during this school year. They have played at football games, school assemblies, civic and private parades, district and state music clinics and festivals, concerts, baseball games, and religious services. At the District and State Music Festivals, we received superior rating. At the Annual Fire Prevention Parade, we received a trophy for the Best Marching Band on the Peninsula.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM

The 1955 basketball team was coached by Freddie L. Travis and Raymond Crittenden. The season achievements included three trophies which were awarded for placing second in the Eastern District, for placing second in the District Tournament, and for capturing the V. I. A. State Championship by defeating Halifax. This was the first State Championship we had won since 1930. Fans agreed that this team was one of Huntington's best. The players were—Forward: George Davis, Lonnie Humphrey, Harold West, Herbert Strickland, and Caesar Williams; Guards—Joseph Buggs, Breon Haskett, Willie Dolby and Jeremiah Haynes; Centers—Earl Faison and Clarence Townes; Trainer—Grady Burgess.

DRIVER TRAINING

A course in Driver Training was begun at Huntington High School in 1947. The purpose of the course is to give the students theoretical and practical knowledge of safe and sound driving.

Any student who has passed the driver education course offered in the 9th grade and the examination given by the Motor Vehicle Department of Virginia is eligible to enroll in the three week course.

The car which has dual control is furnished by the Rollins Motor Company.

When I was young, I had to know how fast the car I bought would go. But now I'm older, all it takes to sell me any car: Is brakes.

Mr. Rainey: "This coffee is weak."

Mrs. Watword: "I thought you liked weak coffee."

Mr. Rainey: "I do, but I don't like it helpless."

Salesman: "This is a type of a car that pays for itself."

Mr. Austin: "Well, as soon as it does, deliver it to me."

Lawyer: "What kind of car was the defendant driving?"

Witness: "M-G."

Lawyer: "What kind of truck did he hit?"

Witness: "G-M."

Lawyer: "What kind of shape were the vehicles in after the accident?"

Witness: "MGM."

Dear Mr. Rainey,

You must not strike Thomas. He is such a delicate child and isn't used to it. We never hit him at home except in self defense.

Man to Man

Golf Teacher: "Tee the ball."

Beginner: "Sure I see it. But why the baby talk?"

Quite a Demonstration

A vacuum cleaner salesman came to a house and wanted to demonstrate his product. He emptied a sack of dirt on the rug and said, "Lady, if this cleaner doesn't pick up all that dirt, I'll eat it."

"Just a minute," answered the housewife, "I'll get a spoon. We don't have electricity."

Fish Story

Delivery Boy: "Here's the fish your mother ordered. It's C. O. D."

Little Girl (offended): "You don't have to spell it out for me—and anyway, she ordered salmon."

Be Specific, Please

Little Girl (at aquarium): "What is that funny-looking thing?"

Attendant: "That's a jelly fish."

Little Girl: "Oh! What flavor?"

Quite a Bargain

The decrepit old car drove up to the toll bridge.

"Fifty cents," said the gateman.

"Sold," replied the driver.

Simple Solution

Judy: "It's silly, but I always get sick the night before I go on a trip."

Jerry: "Then why don't you start out a day earlier?"

Logical Deduction

Visitor: "Is your brother planning to be married?"

Little Boy: "I don't think so—he's studying for a Bachelor's Degree."

SCHOOL-CALENDAR

Calendar of Events

SEPTEMBER

- 9—Time to get that old go! go! go! A dillar, a dollar, no ten o'clock scholars. A lot of new faces on our faculty. We miss some old ones.
- 10—Well, we've started off right. We defeated Spingarn of Washington, D. C.
- 17—We're not so hot. Burley of Charlottesville defeated us.
- 25—Football team traveled to Bruton Heights in Williamsburg and got revenge by defeating them.
- 28—Blue and white were the colors used at the impressive installation ceremony of the Student Council.

OCTOBER

- 1—Another victory for us. We downed Armstrong of Richmond.
- 4—Senior Class meets and organizes. Earl White elected President.
- 6—Student Council and Viking Boosters Club acquaint us with Viking tags.
- 8—Social Studies Club assembly—Dean Hawkins of Hampton Institute, speaker.
- 9—Hail! Hail! Our Alumni Assembly honoring Van Durham.
- 12—Busy! busy, all the day. Students are preparing for Homecoming Game and Social.
- 16—Paper everywhere! Floats are beautiful; Shirley Pace crowned Homecoming Queen; Kay Mangana, Miss Viking.
- 22—Opera lovers of the city enjoy Muriel Rahn in the title roll of Salome.
- 28—Social Studies Department renewed our acquaintance with the United Nation's program.
- 29—Another victory for us. We defeated Booker T. of Norfolk.

NOVEMBER

- 6—We're tops now. We defeated Peabody of Petersburg.
- 10—Social Studies Classes traveled to historical Williamsburg.

- 12—Oop's! Norcom of Portsmouth fell into our snare. FTA gave an interesting program in celebration of American Education Week.
- 24—We get the true meaning of Thanksgiving by Reverends Rollins and Simms in an assembly program.
- 27—Thriller of the season. We defeated Phenix of Hampton.

DECEMBER

- 10—Guests from neighboring schools arrived for Math Club assembly in celebration of Math Club Week.
- 12—Excerpts from Handel's "Messiah" ring in our ears. Choir's Christmas concert.
- 13—Basketball season gets under way. We defeated Hampton Institute's Freshmen.
- 15—Swing and sway to the music of the Johnny Savoy orchestra. Senior Class gave Christmas social.
- 16—Members of the Senior Class ring committee select class rings.
- 17—Gee! What an enjoyable program for Christmas given by the Juniors. Santa and his reindeer taught us to do the Mambo.

Merry Christmas

JANUARY

- 3—New Year's resolutions. Let's make one to improve our daily attendance.
- 4—We continued our string of successes by defeating Our Lady of Victory, East Suffolk, Maggie Walker of Richmond, Crestwood of Portsmouth, and Phenix of Hampton.
- 18—Bruton Heights of Williamsburg.
- 24—Carver of Warwick. We're at the height of our glory; mid-term exams begin.
- 28—Blame it on exams or the snowy weather, Booker T. of Suffolk gave us our first defeat. Score: 49-48.

FEBRUARY

- 1—New semester begins. The last half-mile for many.
- 4—Basketball team went on the road today and defeated Addison at Roanoke and

- 7—East Suffolk of Suffolk.
- 11—All good things must come to an end. Our team lost to Carver of Warwick, 41-40.
- 16—An interesting play by the Social Studies Club commemorating Negro History Week.
- 19—Prizes, costumes, fun galore. It's the Mardi Gras.
- 22—Kay Mangana chosen to represent our school in the "Miss P. S. C." contest.
- 24—"There's a destiny that makes us brothers" Assembly by Social Studies Club, Rabbi Adelman, speaker.
- 25—Fun and dancing! Social sponsored by the Junior Class.
- 26—Senior Class invitations selected by committee.
- 28—"Homeroom of the week" drive launched and won by room Library A.

MARCH

- 1—From "Bop" to "Bach" on the organ! Southeast Assembly program sponsored by the faculty.
- 4—District Basketball Tournament at Carver. Our team placed second.
- 4—"Watch for the birdie" "Smile" The pictures for the Annual are coming along nicely.
- 5—Hurrah! Huntington wins distinguished rating at drama festival: Joyce Scott gets "Best Actress" award.
- 8—Deadline for invitations fee; here so soon?
- 10—Quite exciting. The Seniors vs. Faculty basketball game.
- 11—Everybody's talking about Hampton Institute. What's going on there? Why, it's the State Basketball Tournament. Great day! Huntington captures the State Championship in basketball for the first time since 1930.
- 17—Well, we heard them today, the band and choir and nothing but superior rating could justify their performance.

- 18—Big extravaganza of the year. The annual talent show. Banquet honoring Coach Madden who was elected to the Bike Webb Century Club.
- 19—The school is in a frenzy. District music festival is here.
- 21—Basketball Team goes to Nashville to participate in the National Basketball Tourney.
- 25—Superb indeed was the Spring Concert.

APRIL

- 4—Smartest fashions for boys and girls were shown us by the Home Economics classes in their annual fashion show.
- 7—Beautiful costumes, superb music, excellent acting, a masterful presentation for our Easter Pageant.
- 12—Choir and Band traveled to Virginia State College to State Music Festival.
- 7-13—Easter holidays. Plenty of gay colored eggs and a good time.

MAY

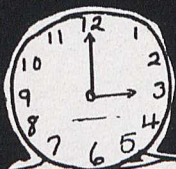

- 4—F. T. A. observed Charter Day with an impressive Pageant "Through Freedom's Doors."
- 6—Physical Education Department demonstrated their activities.
- 26—At last it's here and what a gala affair, the Junior-Senior Prom.
- 27—The Seniors are really on their way. Seniors' assembly today marks the beginning.

JUNE

- 1—Gee, it's hot, but it won't be long now.
- 5—Baccalaureate.
- 6—Exams begin. Where did those teachers get all those questions?
- 10—Commencement. Only veterans and aspirants for the football and basketball teams remain.
Good-bye Seniors. Best wishes and congratulations.
